

NEW Training Opportunities for Early Years Providers in non-school settings.

Allegation Management for Early Years Colleagues (NON SCHOOL SETTINGS)

Monday 8th October 2018 09:30 until 12:30

Heaton Sports Club Heaton Moor Stockport SK4 2NF

Outline

The Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) provides information on the allegations management process that must be followed when a complaint about a worker is received and the role and responsibilities for managers in the Children's Workforce.

Trainers

Julia Storey, Senior Adviser Safeguarding Children in Education & Gill Moore, Stockport LADO.

Outcomes

At the end of the course participants will:

- Be aware of the allegations management process within Stockport;
- Understand the role and responsibilities of the Local Authority Designated Officer
- Understand the role and responsibilities of employers.
- Know where to access advice and support

Audience

- Managers who manage staff within their organisations,
- Managers who are responsible for child protection and safeguarding within their organisations,
- HR workers
- Please note this course is not aimed at Early Years staff working within school settings.

Cost

£50 per delegate including refreshments

There is ample parking at the venue.

Booking information

To book a place please click on the link below

eyesafeguarding@stockport.gov.uk